EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

Notification D. No. 45, dated 26*th October* 1920.

In pursuance of Government Order No. 2792-3—Edn. 27-16-86, dated 11th September, 1920, the following set of rules relating to the "Mysore State Aided Schools' Provident Fund" is published for public information.

Rules.

1. Name of the Fund.—The Fund shall be called 'The Mysore State Aided Schools'. Provident Fund.'

2. Extent.—It extends to all the State Aided Schools in the Mysore State.

3. Commencement.—It shall come into operation from the 1st January 1921.

4. Definitions.—In these Rules the terms, 'State Aided Schools' means and includes the schools the names of which will be published from time to time with the previous sanction of Government.

'Employees' means and includes teachers, Pandits, Instructors, Writers, Librarians and all other full-time employees in the State Aided Schools to whom the benefit of the Fund may, in accordance with these rules, be applied but shall not include those whose salary is less than Rs. 8 per mensem or Europeans.

'Controlling authority' is the authority in whom the administration of the Fund shall for the time being vest or to whom the same may be delegated by Government.

5. Object of the Fund.—The object of the Fund is to enable the employees of State Aided Schools to make suitable provision for themselves and their families.

6. Membership.—(i) Subscription to the Fund shall be compulsory in the case of all permanent employees entering service on or after the 1st January 1921, (ii) Subscription to the Fund shall also be open to (a) persons holding temporary appointments and (b) those who joined the service of the school prior to 1st January 1921 and continue in service provided that in the case of persons referred to in (a) the Manager of the institution certifies that they are likely to be continued in service for at least three years and in the case of persons referred to in (b) they elect in writing before 1st April 1921 to become subscribers to the Fund.

7. Rate of subscription.—The monthly rate of subscription shall be $6\frac{1}{4}$ per cent of the amount of the substantive pay of the employee excluding remuneration for special occasional services or acting and personal or other allowances and shall remain fixed throughout the financial year, that is to say, it shall not be variable later on during the year on account of any increase or decrease in the rate of substantive pay of the employee, any increase or decrease in the pay being taken into account for fixing the rate of subscription from the commencement of the next financial year.

8. Contribution.—The management of the school and the Government will each contribute on behalf of the subscriber a sum equal to one-half of the subscriber's contribution.

9. The employee's subscription will be deducted each month from his pay and paid into the Treasury to his account by the Management along with its own contribution, while the contribution from Government will take the form of a single contribution at the time the employee retires or for other legitimate reasons withdrawn his deposit, equivalent to one-third of the amount-standing at his credit.

10. Subscriptions during absence on leave of any kind shall be optional. If, however, the employee elects to subscribe the Government and the Management will be bound to contribute in the proportion referred to above and the rate of subscription shall be calculated on the salary allowed to the employee during such period.

11. Interest at the rate of 4 per cent will be allowed on the employee's subscription as also on the contribution made thereto by the management. Government reserve to themselves the right to alter at any time the rate of interest payable on the subscriptions.

12. The subscriptions and contributions received under the foregoing rules will be credited on the books of Government to an account named 'the State Aided Schools Provident Fund.' The general administration of the Fund shall vest with Government in the Education Department who may delegate all or any of the powers vested in them to any Officer of Government. No withdrawal of any part of the deposits or the payment of any Government contribution will be allowed without the sanction of Government or the officer to whom this power may from time to time be delegated.

13. Management of the Fund.—The Fund will be worked as part of the Government Savings Bank system an account being opened for each subscriber. The teacher's contribution and that of the management will be paid into the nearest Taluk Treasury for credit to the individual accounts to be opened in the Government Savings Bank there.

14. Withdrawal on retirement or death.—(i) An employee who retires after ten years' approved service or whose services are terminated for no fault of his will be entitled on retirement on the termination of his services to receive

(a) his own subscriptions till then given

(b) the contribution made on his behalf by the management and

(c) the Government contribution. Together with the interest that had secured due on the aggregate amount calculated up to the end of the half-year immediately preceding the date of retirement or termination of services as the case may be.

(ii) In the case of voluntary retirement after five years and before the completion of ten years' approved service an employee will be entitled to receive

(a) his own subscription paid till then,

(b) half of the contribution made by the management together with interest calculated as above on both

(iii) Death or any permanent physical unfitness occurring within five years' service will, however, entitle the employee or his heir to the full benefits of the Provident Fund, that is to say, his own subscription and the contribution made on his behalf by the management and Government and interest as calculated above on all.

(iv) In the case of voluntary retirement before the completion of five years' service or of dismissal for dishonesty, incompetence, misconduct or gross insubordination, an employee will only be entitled to get back his own subscription up to the date of retirement or dismissal together with interest thereon calculated as above.

15. After he has completed 30 years' service a subscriber's payments and also the contributions paid on his behalf by the Manager shall cease and the sum to be paid him on retirement shall be the amount to his credit in account on the date of completion of 30 years' service, the Government's contribution and the interest on the whole amount up to the end of half-year preceding the retirement, 30 years' restriction will not however apply to those already in service.

16. On opening an account in the Fund each subscriber shall furnish to the Management a certificate in the prescribed form giving the names of one or more persons to whom he desires that in the event of his death the whole or any portion of the amount due to him from the Fund shall be paid and he may at any time revise the certificate and all certificates in force shall be duly registered by the Management in a register kept for the purpose. A subscriber shall be at liberty to nominate any person or persons, whether his natural heirs or other relations who in the event of his death shall receive the amount due under the Rules; in case more than one person is nominated the proportion in which the amount is to be divided among them should also be specified; where the nominee is a minor, a guardian shall also be appointed who may receive the money on behalf of the minor. A subscriber shall be at liberty to change his nominee or nominees as often as he pleases but only the person or persons last registered in the books shall be recognised for purposes of this Fund.

17. In the event of a contributor's death before or after retirement but before the money has been handed over:

(a) It will be divided in accordance with any nomination that may have been registered under Rule 16 and the receipt signed by the registered nominee or nominees shall be a full and valid discharge.

(b) In the absence of any nomination it will be paid to the legal representatives of the estate as determined by a civil court of competent jurisdiction, provided that if the sum remaining to be paid to the depositor does not exceed Rs. 500 it may be paid to such person or persons as the controlling authority may consider to be entitled thereto.

18. No payment shall be made to or on account of any subscriber until any debt that he may owe to the school has been paid but no debt shall be contracted on the security of the provident contributions.

19. When the pecuniary circumstances of the subscriber warrant it, a temporary advance not ordinarily exceeding 3 months' pay may be allowed from the sum at the credit of the subscriber at the discretion of the controlling authority. The following may be recognised as legitimate occasions for advance:—

(i) to pay expenses incurred in connection with the illness of the subscriber or a member of his family;

(ii) to pay for the passage of any member of the subscriber's family coming from beyond the sea to join him or requiring to make journey beyond the sea from urgent cause;

(iii) to pay expenses in connection with the marriages, funerals or ceremonies which by the religion of the subscriber it is incumbent upon him to perform and in connection with which it is obligatory that expenditure should be incurred.

Advances will be recovered at the discretion of the controlling authority in not less than 12 monthly instalments nor more than 24. A subscriber may however at his option make payment in less than 12 instalments or may repay 2 or more instalments at the same time. Recoveries will be made monthly commencing from the 1st payment of a full month's salary after the advance is granted but no recovery will be made from the subscriber while he is on leave of any kind. The instalments will be paid by compulsory deductions from salary and will be in addition to the usual subscription.

20. All lapses from the contribution except the amount paid by the Management shall be added on to the Fund, and the amount refundable to the Management in such cases shall be the amount contributed by them together with interest thereon at 4 per cent per annum.

21. Government reserve to themselves the right to amend, alter and annul all or any of the foregoing rules.

II. Such of the Managers of State Aided Institutions as are willing to avail themselves of the benefit of the scheme during the current official year are requested to apply on or before the 15th November 1920, to the Inspecting Officers directly in charge of their schools with full information regarding the staff of their schools as detailed below:—

Notification D. No. 62, dated 1*st December* 1920.

Under Article 470 of the Mysore Service Regulations, Mr. M. Venkata Subbiah, B.A., L.T., District Inspector of Education, Bangalore, is permitted to utilise from 3rd January 1921 in continuation of the ensuing Xmas holidays, the two weeks' privilege leave granted to him from 29th October 1920 in this office Notification D. No. 40 of 9th October 1920.

C. No. 3824 of 20-21, dated 2*nd December* 1920.

To—All the Inspecting Officers of the Department; the Managers of Aide Institutions and the Managers of Aided Hostels.

Has the honor to inform that Government have, in their Order No. 4556—Edn. 49-19-17, dated 17th November 1920, been pleased to sanction the following as clause (a) in the form of declaration in Appendix L of the Mysore Grant-in-aid Code.

"(a) I further bind myself that, in case the institution ceases to work at any time before the expiration of 10 years (ten years), I shall either sell the articles to Government at a reasonable valuation made by the Departmental Officers minus the grant given, or refund the grant sanctioned for the purpose before the articles are disposed of."

It is therefore requested that applications and recommendations made in future for furniture and equipment grants should invariably be accompanied by the above declaration, separately attached thereto until the prescribed application form is suitably revised.

Notification D No. 61 dated 29*th November* 1920.

The following notices issued by the Madras Students' Advisory Committee are reproduced below for the information of the public.

MADRAS STUDENTS' ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

The following communication received from Dr. T. W. Arnold, C.I.E., dated 2nd September 1920, is published for the information of students regarding admission to the Leather Sellers' Technical College:—

"We have received a communication from the Principal of the Leather Sellers' Technical College to the effect that he cannot admit any further students for this year, and that there will be no vacancies until 1921. Will you please communicate this to all concerned and so prevent any disappointment on the part of students who desire to undergo this particular course of training.

Notice regarding the future admission of Indian students to the University College, London.

The Secretary of the Advisory Committee, Madras, has received the following Memorandum drawn up by the University College, of the University of London, regarding the future admissions of Indian students to that College.

C. MADHAVAN NAIR,
Secretary.

"UNIVERSITY OF LONDON, UNIVERSITY COLLEGE."

Students wishing to come from India to London for the purpose of University study are advised:—

1. To arrange to begin their studies at the commencement of the University Session, i.e., the first week of October in each year.
2. To write to the Provost of the College not later than May 1st preceding the October in which they desire to begin their studies.
3. Not on any account to come to London until they have ascertained that they can be admitted.

N. B.—The University Institutions in London are so overcrowded that Indian students neglecting the advice given, are almost certain to be disappointed if they come to London without previously having obtained admission.

Notification D No. 63, dated 7*th December* 1920.

It is hereby notified that candidates for the Senior Examination in English Composition (Subject No. 7, Appendix I of Notification D No. 84, dated the 22nd January 1920, publishing the Commercial Examination Rules) will take this portion of their Examination along with the candidates for the S. S. L. C. Public Examination and answer the same papers as the S. S. L. C. candidates. Candidates for this portion of the Commercial Examinations are permitted to appear at any of the District Headquarter Stations, all of which are S. S. L. C. Centres of Examination. The Centre chosen for English Composition should be mentioned against Subject No. 7 in column 8 in the form of application for Commercial Examinations.

A complete programme of the Examinations will be published in January 1921.
